2. [] JSW) Talked with Ed Lyerly, State Department, about proposed amendments to the Foreign Service Act. He indicated some discussions have been held on the Hill with mixed results but in any event indicated the possibility of getting this legislation through by attaching it to the Foreign Aid bill or possibly the Foreign Buildings Authorization bill. From his listing of the items, there will be some matters of interest to the Agency particularly in the amendments to Title IX dealing with commuted travel expenses, home leave when returned PCS to Washington, travel of wives, transportation of remains, payment of claims for loss or damage to personal effects and use by dependents of official vehicles.
